

William wrapped up his summer graduating from occupational therapy, going to a Twins Game, fishing up north, soaking up the last warm days in MN, and turned 4 years old. He is back in early childhood special education for the 2021-2022 school year and still at daycare. These days...

- He's a quick little fella eager to grab unattended devices, food on the counter, or glasses on someone's face.
- He is testing his boundaries and intentionally joking and making us laugh.
- He is babbling more and has so much to say (without actual words... yet).
